

EXTERIOR WALL MURAL

Beautifully Wild, Est. 1912

Location: Arizona

Year: 2021

Credit: Painted with Bianca M. De Marco

A long exterior block wall celebrating the state itself: "Beautifully Wild, Est. 1912," lettered inside a teal Arizona beside Sedona-red mountains and a sunburst sky. 1912 is the year Arizona became a state.

The wall runs from that sunrise into a full desert understory: flowering prickly pear, organ pipe and saguaro, monarch butterflies, and an Anna's hummingbird working the blooms, the whole length signed and dated June 2021.

It is also a family piece. The signature block carries two names: Brigitte De Marco and Bianca M. De Marco, one of the earliest big walls in the body of work that became Prickle & Pine Designs.

Project page: <https://brigittedemarco.com/murals/projects/beautifully-wild>